postoffice in Roy, New Mexico

Theodore Roosevelt once said:
"Friends, our task as Americans is to strive for social and industrial justice, achieved through the genuine rule of the people. In our hearts we must have this lofty purpose, and we must strive for it in all earnestness and sincerity, or our work will come to nothing. In order to succeed we need leaders of inspired idealism, leaders to make their dreams come true; who can kindle the people with the fire from their own burning souls. The leader for the time being is but an instrument—the watchword for all is to spend and be spent. It is of little matter whether any man fails or succeeds, but the cause shall not fail, for it is the cause of mankind. We here in America, hold in our hands the hope of the world, the fate of the coming years; and shame and disgrace will be ours if in our eyes the light of high resolve is dimmed, if we trail in the dust the golden hopes of men."

The truth of these burning words becomes more apparent daily. What a pity, that petty politicians in the Senate and out, cannot rise to an understanding of these sentiments which another man of a different administration has espoused and is putting across And the pity of it all—that he who uttered this, himself, renounced and opposed the carrying out of these principles by another.

Bro. Valandingham, of the Willard Record, voices our sentiments in the following:

"When we grow too old to do any real, worth-while work on the desk of this or some other paper, we would like to land a soft job as a press agent or propagandist for some equally worthless outfit that has a fat bank roll. All we would need would be a typewriter and a mailing list, and we could grind out the stuff that editors throw into the wastebasket till further orders, and we could do it without any mental effort whatever."

The action of the California Republicans, including many state officers, in wiring Senator Johnson to "Lay Off" on his opposition to the League of Nations and declaring that an overwhelming majority of the people he misrepresented are for the League, is another hopeful sign of the times.
The people who are honest in opposition to the President are simply behind the times. They do not comprehend that the things that are rated as practical today will be the principles and practices of tomorrow. The man who claims to be practical and sneers at idealists declares himself behind the times and he who sees only the mistakes and faults in the present administration or the places only where he, personally is concerned, has yet to forget much of his criticism and carping when the truth shall be revealed where there is no chance to question or criticize.

President Wilson is the greatest man with the greatest ideals and opportunities history has ever produced and his conquest over the peace conference and Senate and his influence over the world will stand a century without a rival.

It will then be beaten perhaps by a greater condition than these as these are greater than all the recorded history of all the past.

A newspaper of wide circulation in New Mexico, but published in Arizona, and supposed to be Republican in politics says—"Of all the sour souls which thrive in Washington, that of Senator Fall of New Mexico seems to be the most distinguish-able. He dips his thoughts in the vinegar of conceit and washes them in the vitrol of animosity.
His recent diatribe on the peace treaty shames us for living in the same section of America. We have two thousand subscribers in New Mexico and we wonder if a single one of them would again 'fall' for Fall."

20,000 feet of lumber moved from the old yard, two cars unloading and seven cars on the way will stock up the Roberts & Olver new lumber shed only partially. Call and see it. Adv

In "The City of Tears," the Carmel Myers Bluebird picture which comes to the Roy Theatre on Saturday Oct. 4. Edwin August for a change plays a character role, that of an Italian delicatessen shop keeper, with a heart so big that it got him into trouble. Adv

Learn to Swim.

Swim every day and you will not develop large, ugly muscles, but beautiful, smooth-working ones under a clean skin, a body that moves with grace, bright eyes and a smile that will carry you anywhere. One of the greatest medical experts in the country has classed swimming as the greatest of exercises, because it uses the whole muscular system, with moderate demand on nerve control.

We have moved our lumber yard and coal shed from the old place on the R. R. yards to our big new lumber shed back of the Foster block. Its really quite a place, call and see a real lumber yard and plan with us for your building. Roberts & Olver adv

Coal, Sash Doors, Mouldings, Window glass, Builders Hardware, plaster and cement are among our regular line of building material, all properly sheltered and handled right. Roberts & Olver, new lumber shed Adv

Were we not at war with germany, the hunnish activities of Katrina, the little german chorus girl of the Italian Comic Opera Company, would be put down to perfectly natural villain business on the part of the author of "The City of Tears", the Bluebird photoplay which comes to the Roy Theatre on Saturday Oct.
4th. Many, however, who see it will be certain that it is another species of hunnish propaganda. Adv

Roberts & Olver lumber and coal yard is now in the big new lumber shed back of Foster block. Adv

With "The City of Tears", which will be seen first at the Roy Theatre on Saturday Oct.
4th, Bluebird introduces a most engaging little actress in the person of Leatrice Joy. Miss Joy, whose name is extremely appropriate, plays the role of a little artist's model who engaged her heart as well as her pretty face to her employer. Adv

Seven carloads of lumber are now on the road to stock up the new Roberts & Olver lumber shed, rear of Foster block. Adv
